

An Invitation To Join EARTHRISE PLAYERS

in a Joyful World of Environmental Theatre
for all ages

EXPERIENCE THE WONDER OF...

A MAGICAL CAPE

that expands to reveal many characters and billows into a 10 metre backdrop.

AMAZING TRANSFORMATIONS

as your group becomes molecules, plants, animals, ecosystems, mystical beings, and even the universe - festooned in our unique masks, costumes, and giant puppets.

SHARED PLANETARY STEWARDSHIP

and interconnections with the vast web of life as you enjoy the company of our troupe of enthusiastic earthlings.

MULTIDIMENSIONAL PRESENTATIONS & WORKSHOPS

including dramatized environmental issues; "invisible" and formal theatre; structured and freeform educational modules; songs and dances; multimedia production and new age communications for everyone.

Groups who find our presentations useful and empowering include...

- boards of education
- community centres
- public libraries
- museums
- science fairs
- youth groups
- summer camps
- fundraising events
- environmental rallies
- multi-cultural festivals
- religious congregations
- lobby groups
- unions
- private parties and retreats
- parent-teacher associations
- business and political conventions

EARTHRISE PLAYERS

also works with special interest groups in developing skits and presentations that help to clarify issues and visualize possible solutions.

Ancient Ecology comes alive as Grandmother Woodchuck and Gluscabi, the mischievous Micmac spirit, ponder the future of unborn generations.
